

A Classy Privy

This type of privy (Outhouse) might be found at Hotels or Inns so their guest would have a nice place to go. Usually they were two holer's, not that two guests would use them at the same time, as one hole was for an adult and the other was for a child.

To use the privy, if you among a group several announcements could be made: I am going to the closet, the reading room, or I am going to see a man about a dog. Women would say I am going to visit aunt Mable or Mrs. Murphy.
